Buckler '66

Union Pines High School
Cameron, North Carolina

Holly Hales, Editor

"But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep."

ONE PROMISE IS KEPT, but how many more are YET to be kept,
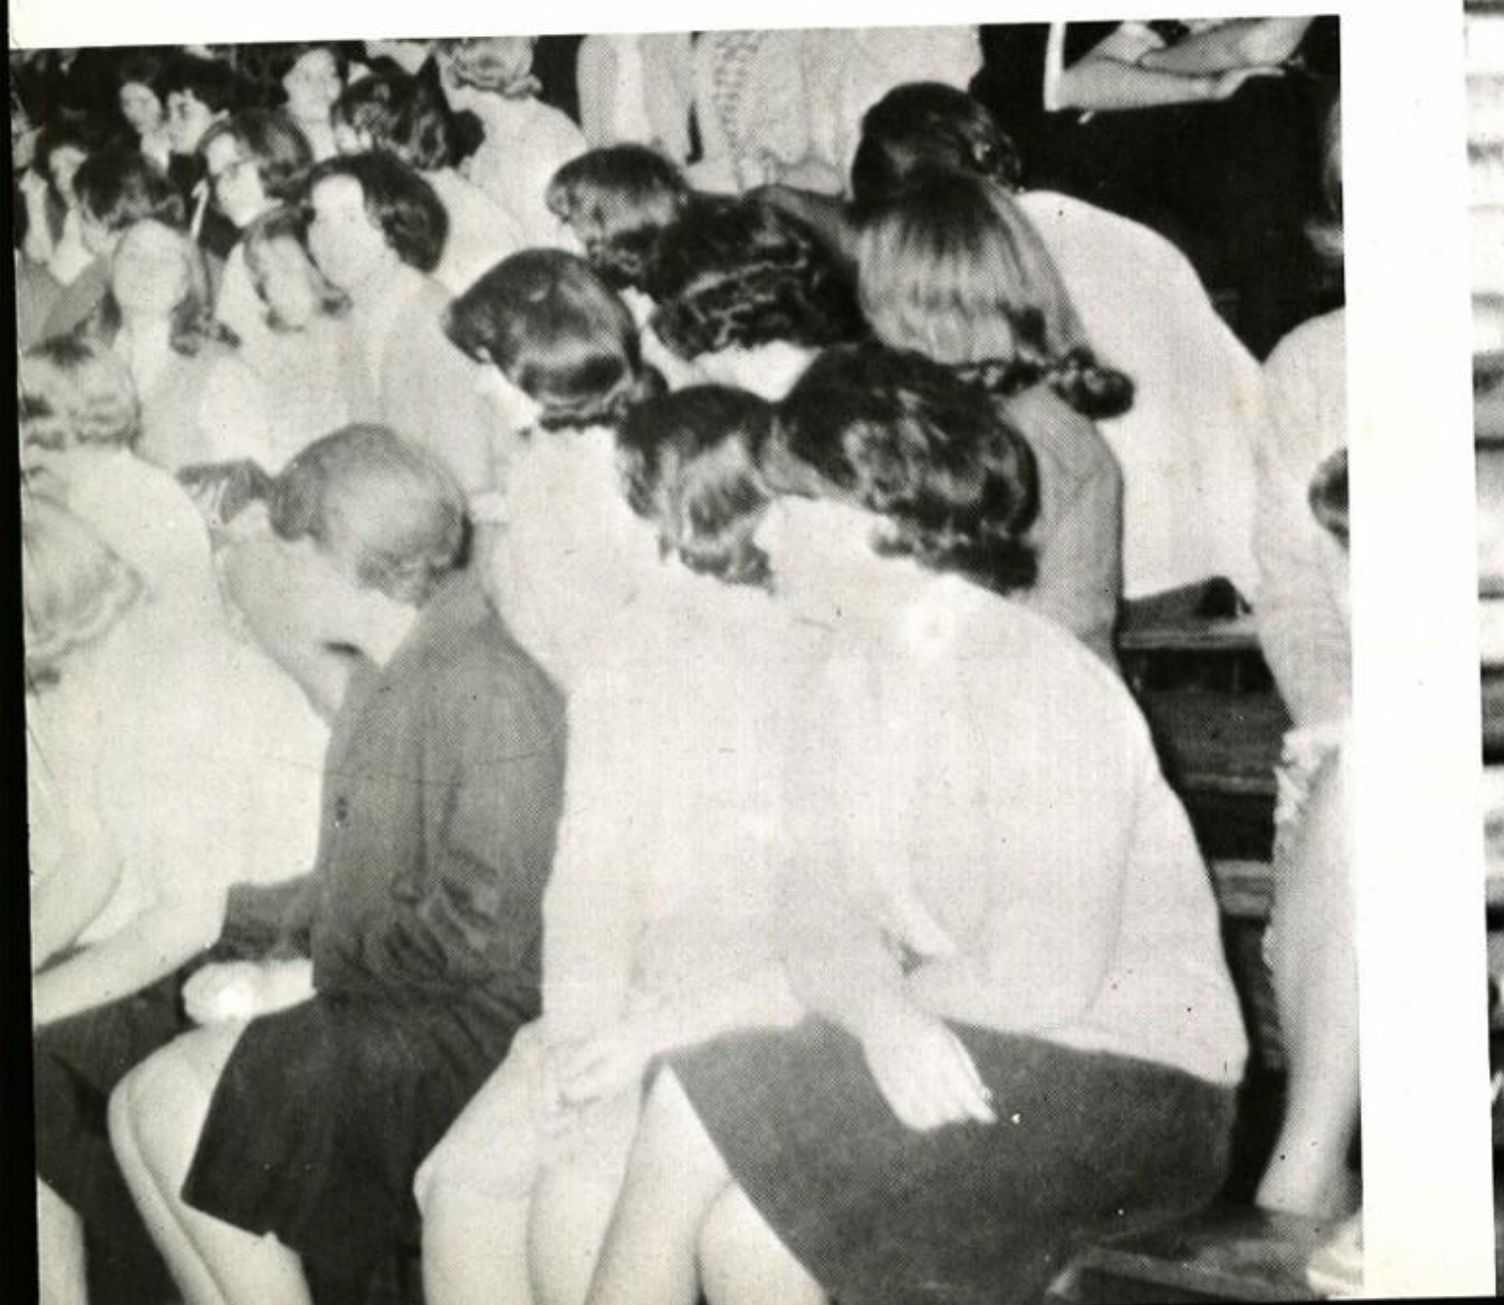
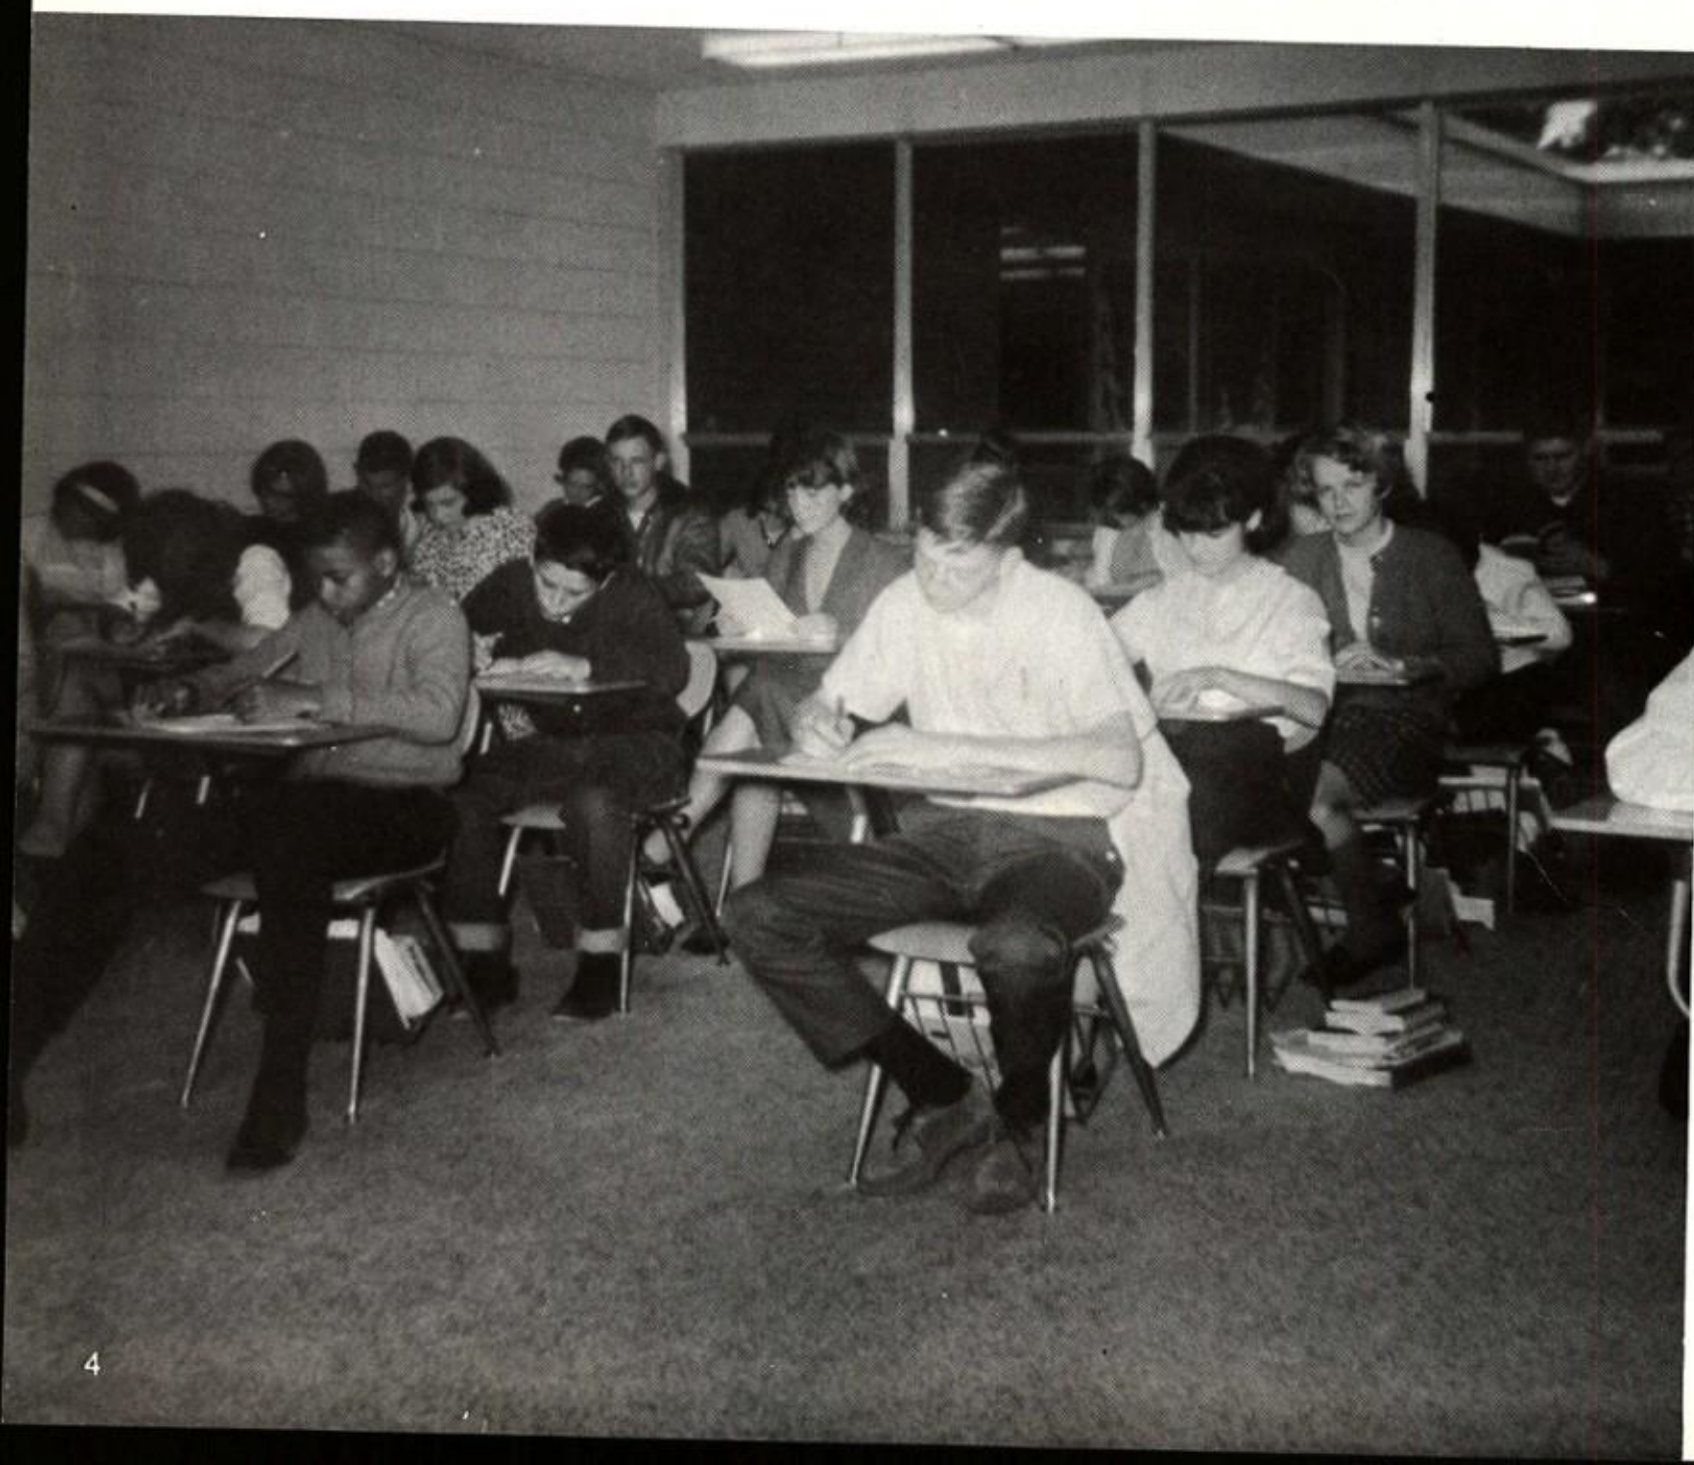
YET to be conceived,
YET to be stated,
YET to be tried,
YET to be given in fee.
There are always miles to go; obstacles
YET to hurdle; dreams
YET to be won; goals
YET to be attained;

WORLD BOOK



VIKINGS



And always there must remain

MORE goals to attain,

MORE hurdles to clear,

MORE dreams to dream:

And if the miles seem endless, take heart

that you have blessed some part of the trail,

some bramble you have swept away, and for those next who pass that way, perhaps,

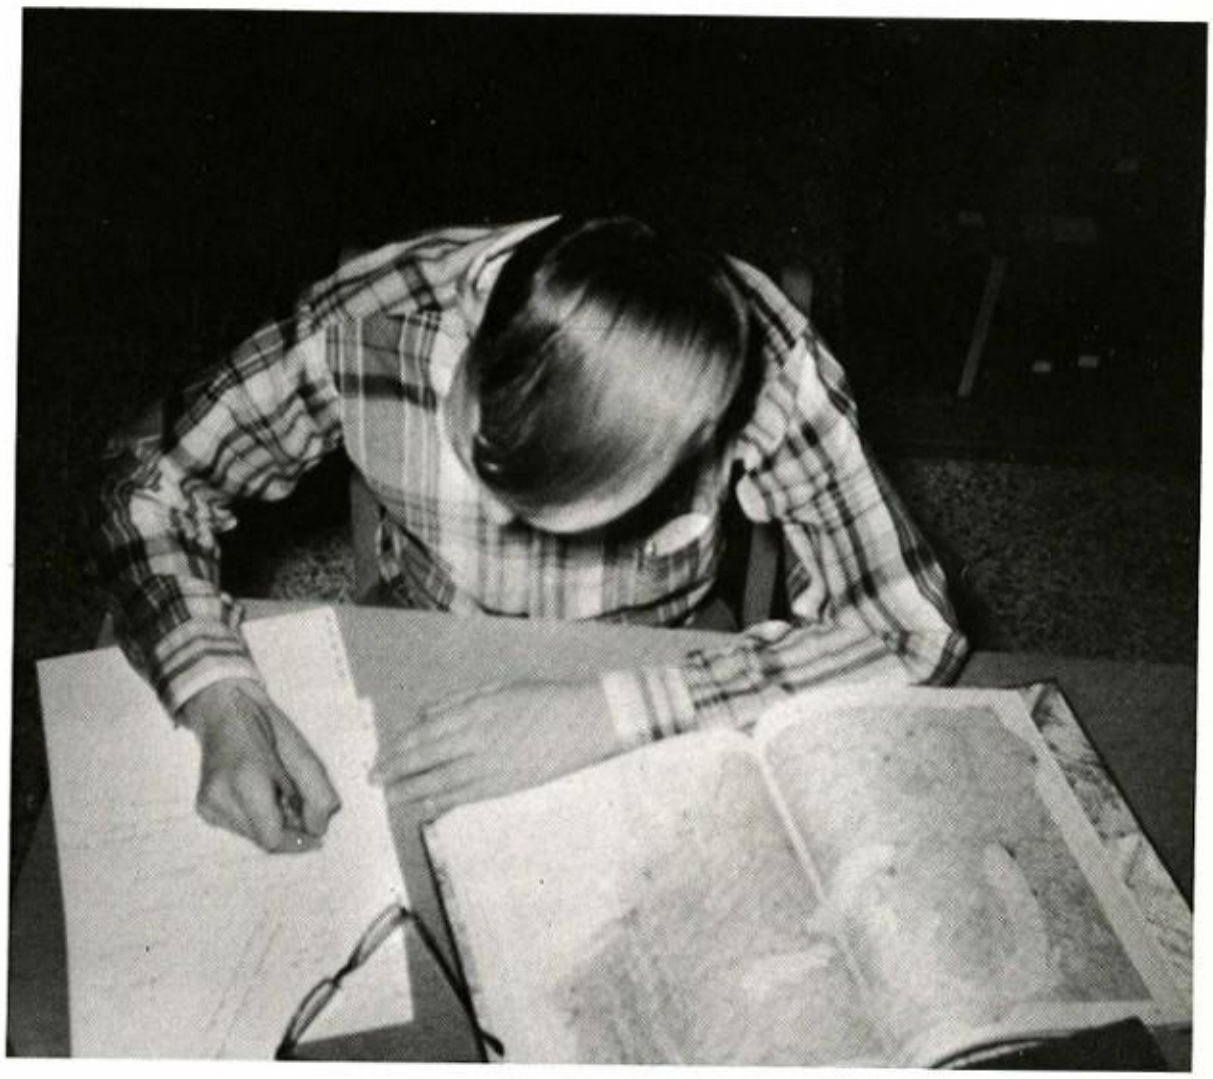
THE MILES WILL BE EASIER.



The BUCKLER opens.
Our trail stretches ahead.

We look backward and see the winding road that has brought us here.

We look forward toward a limitless future waiting just around the bend.

Gratefully we remember those who first trod Union Pines' path.

They established her traditions and blazed the trail for us.

Humbly we pick up our packs and walk purposefully onward.

There is much that still must be done, and the trail is beckoning.

Dedication

In dedicating this annual, the second BUCKLER,
we wish to honor the man whose dedication has made our school a reality, whose leadership has enriched the education of Moore County, and whose efforts will guide us to even greater achievements.
It is with pride and gratitude that we dedicate the 1966
BUCKLER to . . .

Mr. Robert E. Lee

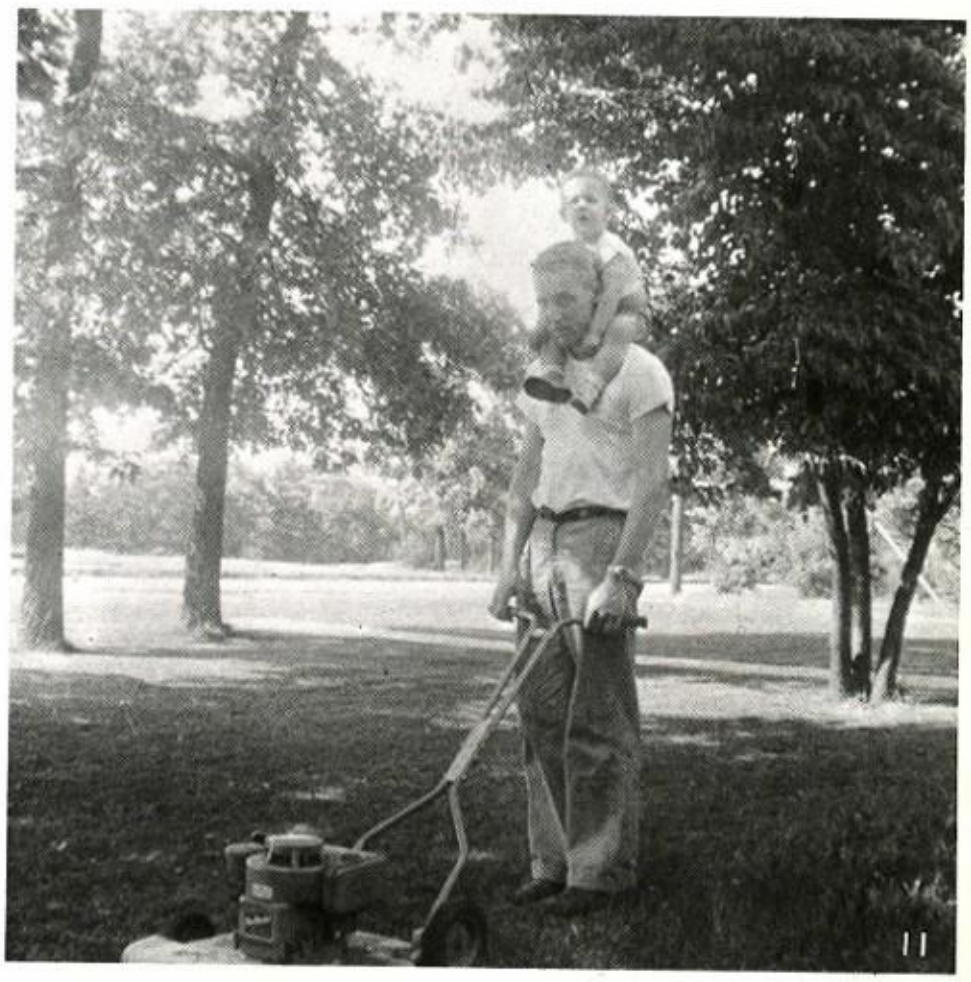
Family Man



Mr. W. C. Walton, Principal

Two years ago the sounds of eager students echoed in the halls of Union Pines for the first time. As the students rushed about in a state of complete confusion, a distinguished looking gentleman was there to greet each newcomer with a friendly smile. Many students wondered at the presence of this highly respected man. Today, however, there is no cause to wonder. All Vikings admire and respect the mild yet firm manner of our principal, Mr. W. C. Walton.

These all-important people are the true leaders of our school . . . the men and women we look to for inspiration. Correcting . . . criticizing . . . listening . . . helping . . . sharing their knowledge with us . . . endlessly . . . without adequate recognition . . . especially from us, who take all they have to offer.

Participating members develop leadership, fellowship, self-confidence, personality and poise. These activities also aid in stimulating proper attitudes, building character, and developing those behavior patterns vital to a good citizen, who is an asset to his school, his home, and his community.

Reading Club

The Reading Club reviews books, both classical and contemporary, and discusses authors. The club also sponsors a book store for the enjoyment of the entire school.

Susan Phillips
Accompanist

Appearing at the annual Kiwanis Club banquet in the multi-purpose room, the chorus has been delightful entertainment for the past two years. Also, a Christmas Concert was presented by the chorus and band.

A trip to Duke to hear "The Messiah" was an outstanding event which was enjoyed by all music students.

Health Careers

The purpose of the Health Careers Club is to create and to expand an interest among high school students to enter some form of health career after graduating.

Safety League

Running is "in" in Ballgames, and hoses,
Running is "in" for eyeses and noses;
Running is "in" for water and fallses,
But running is "out" in classrooms and hallses.

Mr. Stanley, Sponsor, C. Nurnberg, P. Hendricks, J. Scott, M. Griffin, S. Crabtree, S. Haggard, M. Cooper, E. Howard, B. Frye, L. Matthews.
